

Caroline Levey - OceanWise

Caroline Levey is currently Operations Director at OceanWise, having been with the company since its inception. She is the main account manager for its Port customers.

She has spent her whole career working in and with Ports to implement and improve their use of GIS and spatial data as “everything happens somewhere”.

Caroline is passionate about good data management and helping people achieve ‘best practise’ so they can use data effectively in their operational processes.