

Heather McGuire

Independent Trustee and Chair

Heather has been a Trustee Director of the PNPf since 2000, having previously worked for ABP and representing them on the Trustee Board. She was appointed as Chair from 2003 and 2006 and again from 2009 and became fully independent in 2011.

Heather was prominently involved in guiding the PNPf through the difficult court case and has been instrumental in securing the long-term funding plan to get the PNPf back on track.

Heather began her career in pensions management in 1978 and has acted as a trustee for various pension schemes over the years. Heather has considerable experience in the pensions industry, having started with the National Water Council in Sheffield in 1978 and her experience covers private and public sector schemes, final salary and money purchase, small and large schemes and other non-associated multi-employer schemes such as the PNPf.

Heather is a Fellow of the Pensions Management Institute and a Director of BESTrustees, a leading firm of independent pension trustees.

Simon Powell

Fund Secretary

Simon has worked with the PNPf since 2009 and was appointed as the Fund Secretary in 2015.

Simon is a senior member of the actuarial team at Aon's Farnborough office and as well as acting as the Fund Secretary, Simon also provides support to Anthony Stephens, the current Scheme Actuary. Simon has been closely involved with developing the Trustee's current funding plans, having worked on each of the actuarial funding valuations since 2010.

Simon has over 15 years' experience of providing a wide range of pensions advice, to both sponsors and trustees of pension schemes. Simon has previously worked for one of the 'Big Four' accountancy firms and has worked on secondment for a number of the UK's largest firms.

Simon's grandfather was a Thames Lighterman and Simon still maintains a healthy interest in rowing.
