

Scott Baker (Svitzer)

Over twenty years seagoing and shore based experience within the marine industry. Counter Pollution and Salvage Officer, Nautical Surveyor, Port State Control Officer and Examiner of Masters and Mates for the UK Regulator

Senior Marine Superintendent and Account Director focusing on business development and stakeholder management supporting International Nuclear Services for the movement of INF cargoes.

Current role as Head of Maritime Standards for Svitzer in the European Region representing Svitzer as required in regulatory body and industry forums keeping abreast of any new development internationally, regionally and nationally within the industry. Managing a Marine Standards team to drive an overall culture of safe operations, continued development of an efficient Safety Management System, crewing standards, training and nautical matters.