EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE VACANCIES

Pursuant to Rule II, three members who have been longest in office without re-election retire and when there are more than three lots have to be drawn.

The one member who has been longest in office is Mr. C. E. Mock (Swansea), who will therefore retire.

The other two members to retire will be drawn by lot from the following, all of whom were elected in 1948, namely:—

Mr. H. B. Eagle (Southampton) Mr. J. H. Innes (Gourock)
Mr. M. M. Marshall (Tyne) Mr. H. J. Pead (Cardiff)
Mr. H. J. Wynn (London River)

The three retiring members are eligible without nomination and will offer themselves for re-election.

In addition to the three retiring members, there have been two nominations for the three vacancies, namely:—

Mr. J. P. Bennett (Barry) Mr. C. A. Papworth (Gravesend Sea)

The names of the two members who will retire with Mr. Mock will be announced on the first morning of the Conference.
